Reference letter

To whom it may concern

It is my pleasure to recommend the services of Felix Risk Training Consultants to you.

Felix Risk Training Consultants has been assisting Kanga Finance (Pty) Ltd for consecutive years since 2015 - 2023 with the running of work-based learning programs for upskilling both employed and unemployed graduates. During this time, we have found Felix Risk Training Consultants extremely efficient, conscientious, and always looking to improve their service delivery to our company. All learning moved successfully from contact as historically implemented, to now online with great success. Felix Risk Training Consultants is an innovative training provider who always go the extra mile in upskilling youth. Felix Risk Training Consultants are passionate and dedicated to development of youth of our country and we are happy to partner with them on the training initiatives specifically for the purpose of youth development and the creation of employment opportunities for the youth of our country.

They offer the most competitive rates and have always been excellent with their work quality which always exceeds the value the of the training initiative.

We believe that their knowledge in this field leads them to great success and we do recommend considering Felix Risk Training Consultants for all your training needs as they have been our chosen provider of choice for the last eight years.

We are truly pleased with their work and the passion they have for what they do.

I have no hesitation in recommending their services.

Your sincerely
